

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mrs. Lucy Dean of East Arlington, aged 85, fell and broke one arm on Monday.

Five of Charles Bent's best cows were struck by lightning last Sunday and killed at his farm on Brantree hill. They were insured for part of their value.

A horse belonging to Arthur Perry of Newfane was put out to feed and became tangled in the hitching post and fell, breaking one of its hind legs above the hock. It had to be shot.

Leon Houston was instantly killed Wednesday at Brownington Center, when his horse ran away and he was thrown from the wagon. His head was crushed and he died almost instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beck celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in Fairbanks village, St. Johnsbury, Thursday. They were married in Storing, Germany, and came to this country a year later.

During a recent thunder shower, a bolt of lightning struck the barn of Charles Burns in Brownington Center, setting it on fire and killing a valuable horse. Mrs. Burns was alone at the time, but succeeded in putting out the fire.

After being missing for three days, a valuable cow belonging to A. J. Smith and son of North Craftsbury was found nearly buried in a clay pit. The animal was in a very weak condition, but will live.

Two children of Herman Aestline of Randolph Center, Ella, aged six years, and Eva, aged 12, died Tuesday and Wednesday, respectively, of meningitis, the latter also having appendicitis. There was a double funeral Thursday. They were Mr. Aestline's only children, and neither child had ever had a doctor until their last illness.

William Kipp, engineer at the H. T. Cushman shops at North Bennington, was badly injured Tuesday when a guard iron fell upon his head, bruising his face and severely wounding his nose. George Parker, foreman in the woodworking department of the same mill, lost two fingers on his left hand on a saw Tuesday.

Dummerston Man Sued by Woman.

Miss Maud Kendall of Dummerston has entered suit in Windham county court for $5,000 damages for failure to keep an alleged promise to marry her, which she says was made about April 1, 1916, by Louis H. Coombs of Dummerston. The young woman alleges in her complaint that she acceded to the request of the defendant that she marry him and that since then she has been and is ready to carry out her part of the contract, but that he has refused to have the marriage ceremony performed, although she has requested him to do so.

The Vermont and Brattleboro Savings banks and the Burlington Savings bank and Burlington Trust Co., are included in the suit as trustees. The Burlington Trust Co. has disclosed that there is $130.18 in the name of the defendant, but that there is a notation that this amount is held as collateral by the Vermont National bank of Brattleboro.

To Erect Large Building in Brattleboro.

The contract for construction of the new office building in Brattleboro for the Holstein-Friesian association has been concluded with the Peter Keeler Building Co. of Albany, N. Y. Construction will be begun at the earliest moment after clearing off the site, which is rapidly progressing.

The contract calls for the closing in of the building by Nov. 1 and its entire completion by Jan. 1, 1917.

The present offices are in the American building and occupy several floors and employ over 100 young women and men. The new building, which is to be built for A. B. Clapp, will be fireproof in every detail. It is from designs made by A. L. Brockway of Syracuse, N. Y., a prominent official in the American Institute of Architects, and who has been engaged in such important work all over the United States and is now engaged in rebuilding the state capitol at Albany, N. Y.

The designs for the Holstein-Friesian building is in accord with the purpose for which it is to be used—and is an excellent example of Dutch architecture, commemorating the origin of the famous Holstein cattle, whose native land is Holland. Although this style of architecture is strange to America, it is nevertheless very pleasant and appropriate.

The building dimensions will be 114 feet by 50 feet and a height of three stories. It affords a floor space of 14,000 square feet, which will be suitably divided to meet the requirements of the registration and other departments, and is intended to cover all requirements for the next 10 years.

The materials used will be concrete and steel, as well as the desks and other furnishings.

ORANGE COUNTY FARMERS' ASSOCIATION NOTES.

Notes for week ending June 17:

The work of this week has been largely making farm calls to find out what the members are doing in the way of trying out new varieties of corn and oats, new crops, new methods of fertilization or making experiments of their own regarding some of these points which have been discussed this past winter. Several are leaving a check with no commercial fertilizer to see how much value commercial fertilizer has on corn when a good coat of manure is applied and the varieties of silage corn are more numerous than ever. If all who are trying more than one variety for silage under similar conditions would report to the county agent at the end of the season, much valuable information would be gathered out that question.

A few reports that grasshoppers are showing in their fields again this year. The county agent would be glad to get in touch as soon as possible with those farmers who are troubled, that means of control may be applied. This year they are found in reduced numbers and a little work with the poison bait ought to put them under control for some years to come. The poison bait is made by mixing 25 pounds wheat bran, one pound paris green, two quarts cheap molasses, and six quarts water, and the mixture is the former preferred. This should be applied early in the morning before or about sunrise. Scatter broadcast strips through the field or pasture.

This same poison bait is recommended as a method of controlling cutworms, which did so much damage to corn a year ago. For cutworms the bait is distributed around each hill in small lumps in the evening. If troubled with them, try it and report the result to the county agent.

A farmers' meeting was held at West Hill church, Chelton, the evening of June 12. About 45 were present. The interest was enough to start a farmers' club that evening. As one farmer expressed it, "There is no time like the present."

Alfred Dodge was appointed chairman and Ralph Walker secretary to look up plans for a permanent organization to be presented the evening of June 27. Have you written the county agent yet about the possibilities of a farmers' club in your section?

A meeting was held in the Osgood district, Randolph, Tuesday evening, June 13. About 15 were present to take part in a discussion about the work of the county association and school work as presented by Superintendent Patterson and the county agent.

The week ending June 24 includes plans for a meeting at Williamstown the evening of June 21 and at East Topham June 23.

The result of the application of nitrate of soda to grass land now shows on all the plots to which it was applied. Make it a point to look at these when passing one. The demonstration will be notified in advance when the county agent plans to visit these plots and will notify his neighbors that others may be present at this time. Plots to be visited Friday, June 23 are: H. J. Sargent, Corinth, 11 a. m.; alfalfa; R. D. Paige, Topham, 1:30 p. m.; alfalfa; J. D. Miller, Topham, 3:30 p. m.; lime; Saturday, June 24: F. H. Rickford, Bradford, 10 a. m.; lime; Will Brooks, Bradford, 11 a. m.; lime; Tuesday, June 27: Bates Bros., Tunbridge, 10 a. m.; top dressed grass; Harry Brown, Tunbridge, 11 a. m.; nitrate of soda plot; Bicknell Hill, Tunbridge, 1 p. m.; lime; G. Wilbur Smith, Tunbridge, 3 p. m.; lime and alfalfa. The county agent will try to follow these hours as closely as possible and asks that those planning to be present be prompt also, in order not to delay the next place.
